

Fanwood Library Winter Take Home Craft

P is for Penguin

Cuddle up with a good book about penguins and then complete the craft. Have fun and stay warm!

Here are some books about penguins that you can check out from the Fanwood Library.

Author	Title
Kristi Valiant	Penguin Cha Cha
Helen Lester	Tacky the Penguin (series)
David McPhail	Peter Loves Penguin
Marcus Pfister	Penguin Pete and Pat
Justin Richardson	And Tango Makes Three
Toni Buzzeo	One Cool Friend
Helen Cowcher	Antarctica
Nic Bishop	Penguin Day: A Family Story
Gail Gibbons	Penguins!
Judy Sierra	Antarctic Antics: A Book of Penguin Poems
Betty Tatham	Penguin Chick

Directions:

1. Glue the letter P onto the blue paper.
2. Draw a penguin belly.
3. Add an eye, beak, flipper, and feet to your penguin.
4. Add the sun and use the cotton balls to glue snow under your penguin.
5. You can use a white crayon to draw snowflakes, or if you have white paint at home, you can use fingerprints to make snow!
